Notice to Guarantors

If the person whom you are guaranteeing this loan does not pay the Credit Union, you will be legally and fully responsible for paying the debt even though you are not receiving any part of the loan proceeds. You may be asked to pay the loan even though the Applicant is working and even though there may be property pledged as collateral for the loan. The Credit Union may begin legal action against you to collect any unpaid indebtedness. If you refuse payment, the loan will be sent to a collection agency and you will be charged a 50% fee on the outstanding loan balance.

If there is more than one guarantor, the Credit Union can sue you alone. It is not required to sue any of the other guarantors. Nothing shall discharge or satisfy your obligation under this guaranty except full payment of the indebtedness, including accrued interest.

Representations and Authorizations

You Represent everything stated in this application is correct to the best of your knowledge.

You authorize the Credit Union to investigate your credit record, verify employment and income information, and answer questions regarding your credit history. You also authorize the Credit Union to obtain credit reports in conjunction with this application and for any update, renewal or extension of the credit received. If you request it, the Credit Union will tell you the name and address of any credit bureau from which it received a credit report on you.

It is a federal crime to willfully and deliberately provide incomplete or incorrect information on the loan applications made to Federal Credit Unions or State Chartered Credit Unions insured by the National Credit Union Administration.
